In addition to the classic editorial work with news, reports, analyses and interviews, the focus will once again be on product topics. The focus topics highlight selected product groups in each issue and explain, above all, which measures and ideas will make them a sales success in the specialized trade.

The special publications of the SAZbike focus on a topical and and explosive topic. Due to their high information content, they enjoy a great deal of interest among readers as a reference work and high-quality source of information.
